Dear Parents/ carers,

We are pleased to let you know that this half term we are going to be collaborating with the organisation 'F2DITC' (Free to Dream in the community) who will be delivering an innovative and exciting workshop with all our Year 6 pupils.

The workshop is titled the 'Young entrepreneurs project' and through participation pupils will have the opportunity to design an item of clothing (a hoody), that will then be made for them by FTD - fully bespoke and custom made to keep as a memory of their final year at Scientia Academy.

Through weekly sessions, held across the half term, pupils will get the chance to learn about various aspects of business including marketing, sales and profit, design, manufacturing and much more. The workshop will also cover various areas of the curriculum including PSHE, art, design, mathematics, and English as well as key skills such as team building and communication.

F2DITC are experienced learning mentors and business owners who believe in inspiring young people to believe in themselves. They are also the owners of the fashion brand F2D (Free 2 Dream) which has been seen on the likes of Ed Sheeran and Miley Cyrus.

At the end of the half term, every pupil will have gained a range of skills that they can take forward as we prepare them for the next stages in their education. In addition, every pupil will receive their personalised hoody and a book, 'Entrepreneurship: A Young Persons Guide'.

This unique opportunity will subsidised by school. However, in order to contribute to the cost of the hoody we are requesting a voluntary contribution of £10.00 to be paid via School Gateway.

We would love the chance to celebrate the work that the children complete in both our newsletter and on our school Twitter page. If you do NOT wish for photographs to be taken of your child to be used in this way, please advise the year 6 class teachers.

If you have any questions about the workshop, please do not hesitate to contact myself or the class teachers.

Kind Regards,

Laura Hands
